

SLYCAN Trust

Supporting the engagement of key stakeholders in the NAP process

Presented by: Dennis Mombauer
Director: Research & Knowledge Management
SLYCAN Trust

Multi-stakeholder engagement in NAPs

Regional NAP Expo for Asia and the Pacific August 29th, 2023

SLYCAN Trust

Who we are

An internationally recognised non-profit think tank focusing on climate change, sustainable development, biodiversity and ecosystems, social justice, and animal welfare.

Supporting the involvement of key stakeholders in the NAP process

- 1 Multi-stakeholder engagement
- 2 Youth empowerment and youth engagement in NAPS
- 3 Private-sector engagement in climate change adaptation and entrepreneurship
- 4 Cross-cutting areas

Multi-stakeholder engagement

- Inclusive and participatory processes
- Engagement with local authorities
- Creating spaces, forums, and partnerships
- Youth
- Private sector

Youth empowerment and engagement in NAPS

- Youth engagement at the national and global level
- Development of framework for youth engagement in climate policy and action, incl. NAPs
- Global Youth Forum on Climate Change (GYFCC)

Facilitating youth engagement

Gathering youth inputs

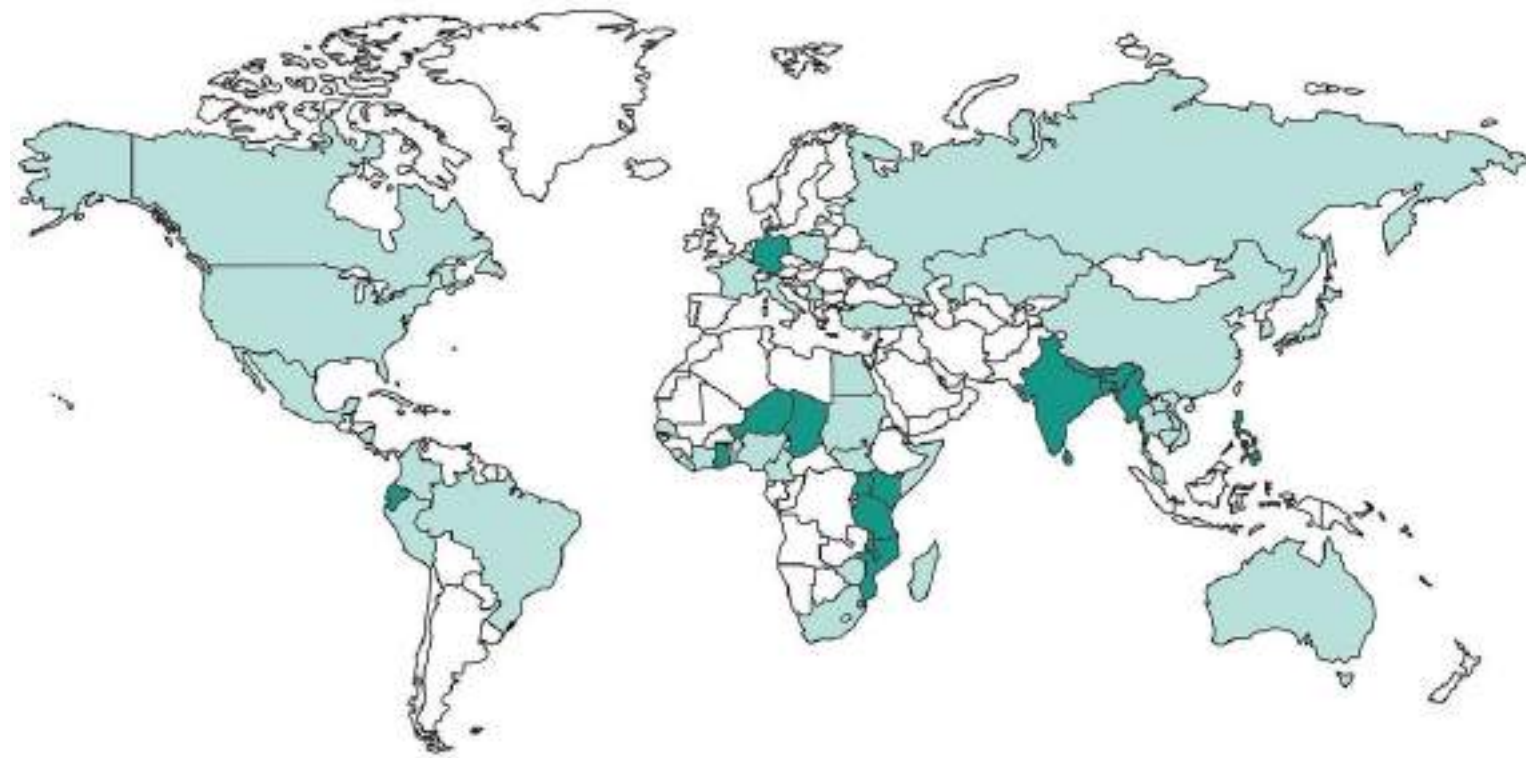

Youth and climate policies

Global Youth Forum on Climate Change

- Initiated in 2016
- Global event; ongoing cycle is 2022-2023 GYFCC
- Thematic areas: climate policy incl. NAPs and NDCs, food systems, risk management and L&D, entrepreneurship and innovatio, just transition andn renewable energy

01
Capacity-building &
youth-led projects

02
(Cross)regional exchange
to connect youth

03
Local partners & events

04
Link to UNFCCC processes

Private sector engagement and entrepreneurship

EthicalX

Local resources,
capacities, assets

Economic
diversification

Alternative value
chains

Innovation
spaces

Mobilizing finance and investment

Climate risk management

Community
resilience

Greenskilling and training

Analysis of submitted NAPs

- 47% of NAPs refer to women and gender considerations in the context of business development, entrepreneurship, and MSMEs
- 24% mention youth in the context of entrepreneurship and adaptation
- Ongoing mapping of entrepreneurship in NAPs and NAP Readiness Proposals
- Input from countries as case studies to feed into the research
- Analysis of gaps, barriers, constraints, challenges, good practices, experiences etc.

Thank you!

About SLYCAN Trust

SLYCAN Trust is an internationally recognised non-profit think tank focused on empowering action through evidence and action. Our work focus on climate change, sustainable development, biodiversity and ecosystem conservation, and social justice.

Main office

96, Kirula Road, Colombo 5, Sri Lanka

Telephone

+94-117-446-238

Website

www.slycantrust.org

